9 NOVEMBER

COMMEMORATE THE 'KRISTALLNACHT' POGROM

An atmosphere of hate is growing in Europe, people are looking for someone to blame. Hate speech and online hate are becoming more commonplace. Comparable to the 1930s, an "us" and "them" rhetoric is spreading. Minorities are attacked whilst the majority remain silent. Europe has been here before: it ended in the Holocaust. That is why we must remember the past and take a stand for our future. We must WIPE OUT HATE.

Every year around 9 November the UNITED network coordinates the International Day Against Fascism and Antisemitism and calls upon the international community to bring an end to hate. We ask NGOs, community organisations, schools, local municipalities and all manner of groups and individuals to join forces and confront hate with direct action. Organise activities, join the Facebook page, check the website, support others, spread the message and join the 9 November campaign to WIPE OUT HATE!
